#gofundme is not a replacement for life insurance. 😞 #justsaying #getyouapolicy #lifeafterdeath

Guys. I’ve seen too many gofundme things for help with funeral expenses to not urge you to plan ahead for the worst- get life insurance 💉

Groucho Marx’s Dog @SchleppoMarx · 21 Jun 2015
Why have life insurance when you can @gofundme your own funeral? (and your last three-to-six vacations btw. And a beemer) #crowdfunding

You guys can’t depend on gofundme for everything. And gofundme isn’t an alternative to life insurance

Petty Labelle @So_YewMadd · May 2
As soon as a mf die the family wants to make a gofundme account. GoFundMe is not life insurance 😅😅😅 #SorryNotSorry

You in the streets, get life insurance, forget the gofundme

For real, it really breaks my heart seeing someone pass and then a GoFundMe is created. People please invest in life insurance!
Smooth Operator @Chicofontaine_ · Apr 25
Gofundme is not a life insurance. Educate yourself please.

chloë @MCLEANCHLOE · Jan 19
Unpopular opinion: gofundme is not life insurance. Crowdfunding does not replace proper planning.

Idle Housewife @AlishaMRM · Apr 14
GofundMe for dead people is shit. It’s not my fault you didn’t have life insurance.

@Kateria_ · May 13
People really need to invest in life insurance. That way people can stop with these gofundme accounts.

These gofundme accounts are sickening now, that's everybody's life insurance, business start up, sometimes it's necessary but mostly it's not

Kickah . @__kickah · Apr 8
Too many young people passing away w/ out having life insurance, please consider life insurance it's important, so a GoFundMe isn't necessary

Molly @fimolly · May 14
Ok, I'm heartless, but ppl using GoFundMe to raise $$ for "parenting costs" when a loved one dies. Doesn't anyone have life insurance?

Doc Ock @OckyJ83 · Jan 15
GoFundMe is NOT a life insurance program! Every other day I am seeing a crowdfunding campaign for a funeral. Planning is still important.

carl williams @iammcadoo33 · 15h

Really sick of people using crowdfunding to retroactively pay for the costs of being an adult. Get health and life insurance already.

Damon Fodge @damonfodge · May 7
I'm dropping all my insurance coverage. From now on, if I run into trouble, I'll just start a #GoFundMe account in its place. #modernworld
